

Annual average earnings of 26-34 year old men working full-time

Men with a university degree earn £12,600 more than those without a university degree:

The earnings of university graduates depend on the field of study:

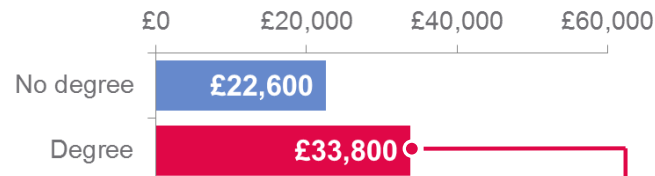

7.6% of men aged 26-34 without a university degree are unemployed versus 2.9% of those with a university degree

Annual average earnings of 26-34 year old women working full-time

Women with a university degree earn £11,200 more than those without a university degree:

The earnings of university graduates depend on the field of study:

7.1% of women aged 26-34 without a university degree are unemployed versus 2.7% of those with a university degree