Dear _____

This time last year your household was interviewed for the Understanding Society study. The study is concerned with how things change over time and we would like to interview you and your household again.

I called today at the address your household was interviewed at last year and found that you now live elsewhere. I spoke to _____ who did not wish to give your new address or telephone number without your permission, but did agree to forward this letter to you on our behalf.

We would be most grateful if you would let us know your current address and telephone number, wherever you are living now. You can call us on Freephone 0800 252 853, email us at contact@understandingsociety.org.uk or complete and return the reply slip below in the Freepost envelope provided – you do not need a stamp.

By giving us your name, address and telephone number you are not committing yourself to be interviewed. Once you have confirmed your new details an interviewer will contact you and invite you to take part. If you are willing, a convenient time for an interview can then be arranged.

The study is being conducted by researchers from the University of Essex, together with NatCen. If you have any questions about the study, or would prefer not to be contacted again, please visit www.understandingsociety.org.uk/participants or call us using the Freephone number provided above.

Thank you for your help.

Yours sincerely,

Your interviewer
Understanding Society
